Victoria Jackson Gray Adams Freedom and Democracy School Open House Enrollment, Grades 6-7

Baltimore, MD February 25, 2010 The Victoria Jackson Gray Adams Freedom and Democracy School, is currently enrolling students entering 6th or 7th grade in the 2010-2011 school year. Prospective students and their parents are invited to attend one of the open houses, held at 1:00 p.m., every Saturday, through June, at 4417 Loch Raven Boulevard.

A maximum of 80, 6th grade students, and 80, 7th grade students will be admitted for the 2010-2011 School Year. If the number of students applying exceeds the number of spaces available, a public lottery will determine who is admitted.

This school is one of Northwood Appold Community Academy's (NACA), award winning, tuition free, public charter schools. The School is one of the highest performing charter schools in the city's five original public charter schools.

The Victoria Jackson Gray Adams Freedom and Democracy School provides a safe and supportive learning environment with a 10/1 student/teacher ratio, a rigorous curriculum, field trips and activities that promote intellectual and academic strength and constructive citizenship.

Dr. Cecil C. Gray, the school's founder and chief, is very proud of NACA's achievements, "What differentiates our school from other schools is our emphasis on freedom and democracy. When children graduate from our school they have strong academic skills, and they also care deeply about making contributions that elevate their community, their country and their planet." Other founding members/members of the NACA Advisory Board include: M. Joycelyn Elders, MD, former United States Surgeon General, Sonia Sanchez, legendary poet, scholar and humanitarian and Vincent Harding, Ph.D., legendary professor, author, veteran of the Freedom Movement.
