NACA's
VICTORIA JACKSON GRAY ADAMS FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY SCHOOL II

OUR VISION AND MISSION

NACA's VJGA Freedom and Democracy School II's (NACA VJGA F&D II's) vision-and-mission emphasizes helping our country move to ever higher levels of humanity by providing a rigorous, exemplary, college-preparatory education that equips our students "to make a living and a life,"[1] enables them "to navigate life's journey effectively and with integrity,"[2] and empowers them to participate fully in freedom and democracy. Our intent is to cultivate -- with regularity and predictability -- young people who are proficient relative to academic achievement and intellectual skills, and who are advanced, constructive, and healthy relative to character development. Our consistent commitment is to send into the world "whole" young people who are prepared to excel at any public or private school they choose to attend following graduation from NACA; and who, ultimately, become peaceful servant-leaders in society. Utilizing active, interlocking partnerships between parents, students, teachers, administrators, civic structures, social leaders, business leaders, and political leaders, NACA's VJGA F&D II launches into the world young people who are empowered to make a life; equipped to make a living; and positioned to participate fully in freedom and democracy.
